The story begins with the death of a young woman named Sarah Keller. Sarah was a member of the Camel Club, and her death is ruled a suicide. However, Will Robie and the other members of the Camel Club are not convinced that Sarah killed herself. They believe that she was murdered, and they set out to find her killer.

The Camel Club's investigation leads them down a dangerous path. They uncover a conspiracy that reaches the highest levels of government. They also learn that Sarah Keller was not who she seemed to be. She was a spy, and she was killed because she knew too much.

Will Robie and the Camel Club must race against time to stop the conspiracy and find Sarah Keller's killer. They face danger at every turn, but they are determined to bring the truth to light.
