The sleeping bag is knit in one piece, with a simple garter stitch pattern. The drawstring closure makes it easy to get your doll in and out of the bag, and the lining keeps them warm and cozy.

The KP404 Doll Sleeping Bag knitting pattern is available in four sizes: 10", 12", 14", and 16". The pattern includes detailed instructions for each size, as well as a materials list and a glossary of knitting terms.

Materials

To knit the KP404 Doll Sleeping Bag, you will need the following materials:

- Worsted weight yarn in two colors: one for the main color and one for the lining
- US size 7 (4.5mm) knitting needles

- Yarn needle
- Drawstring cord

Instructions

The KP404 Doll Sleeping Bag is knit in one piece, from the bottom up. The following instructions are for the 10" size. To knit the other sizes, simply adjust the number of stitches and rows as indicated in the pattern.

Cast on

With the main color yarn, cast on 40 stitches.

Knit in garter stitch

Knit every row until the piece measures 20" from the cast-on edge.

Bind off

Bind off all stitches.

Sew the sides

With the right sides together, sew the two sides of the sleeping bag together, leaving an opening for the drawstring at the top.

Insert the lining

With the wrong sides together, sew the lining to the inside of the sleeping bag.

Insert the drawstring

Thread the drawstring cord through the opening at the top of the sleeping bag. Knot the ends of the cord to secure.

Finishing

Your KP404 Doll Sleeping Bag is now complete! Weave in any loose ends and give it a gentle wash and dry.

The KP404 Doll Sleeping Bag is a fun and easy knitting project that makes a great gift for any child. The simple garter stitch pattern is suitable for knitters of all skill levels, and the sleeping bag can be easily customized to fit any size doll.
